No. 4.]

From R. B. Chapman, Esq, Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, To the Comptroller General, No. 995, dated 27th May 1875.

In forwarding to you the accompanying copy of a despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, No. 87, dated 18th February 1875, I am directed to state that it has been decided by the Governor General in Council that all remittances of money to England, through the India Office, on account of the cost of appeals to the Privy Council on behalf of estates under Courts of Wards, shall be made at the lowest rate of exchange at which bills on the Presidency concerned were sold by the Secretary of State at the time according to latest information. The Accountants General should be informed to this effect.

No. 5.]

From the Government of India, To the Secretary of State for India, No. 175, dated 27th May 1875.

With reference to your despatch No. 87, dated the 18th February 1875, we have the honor to state that, in order to ensure the Government against any loss which may arise from remitting through the India Office the costs of appeals to the Privy Council on behalf of estates under Courts of Wards, we have decided that the charge upon the estates for such remittances shall be at the lowest rate of exchange at which Secretary of State's bills on the Presidency concerned have been sold before each remittance.

ORDER.—Ordered, that these Proceedings be communicated to the several Local Governments and Administrations for information and guidance.

J. A. BOURDILLON,
Offg. Under-Secy. to the Govt. of India.
